REORGANIZATION OF THE EMPIRE CLUB. Last evening a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Empire Club was held at National Hall, Canal street, for Empire Club was held at National Hall, Canal street, for the purpose of aiding the democratic party in securing the election of their candidate at the coming Presidential election. The unterrified reorganized this famous Club and elected Captain Rynders, president of the association. Six vice presidents, two recording secretaries, one corresponding secretary, a treasurer, a grand marshal and a sergeant-at-arms were also chosen without much difficulty. The President of the Ulub was then called upon to make a speech, in the curses of which he took occasion to make a speech, in the curse of which he took occasion to make a fierce oralaught upon the nigger worshippers and Know Nothings. There was no doubt, he said, of the election of a democratic President, particularly as the members of the Empire Club were determined to the advanced of the Concinnati Convention at all hazards. Thos. G. Field, George P. Barnard and Major Reacock them addressed the assemblage. All the speakers were quite sanguine of a glorious victory for the democracy at the forthcoming election.

Theatres and Exhibitions BROADWAY THEATER.—The living embodiments of the works of painters of the greatest renown, as presented by the French company under the direction of M. Reller, are universally so knowledged to ecipes everything hitherto produced in the shape of tablesus. A new picture, entitled "Charity." said to be sublimely beautiful, also one representing "Washington before Trection," will be presented for the first time this evening. The burletts, "A Loan of a Lover," precedes the tablesus.

Nino's Garden.—The Ravels will open the entertainments bis evening with the smusing pantomime styled, "Jocko, or he Brazilian Ape." The brilliant new ballet called the "Plaberman's Dream," will bring forth the popular AFE Bobert, and various other dis inguished artists, in a series of elegant cances. The "Green Monster" is the closing piece, and one that never fails to elicit the warmest approbation from he apectators. Antoine and Franc. is are truly inimitable in helr respective characters.

Bowers Theatre.—Another very attractive bill has been provided for the entersainment of the numerous patrons of this cold and appular house this evening. The first piece on the list is the popular drama entitles. "Sitteen String Jack." in which Mesers. Reed and Collins, Miss wells and Miss Alford appear. The favorite farce of "P. P., or the Man and the riger," follows, and the whole concludes with the grand romantic drama of "The Queen of the Abruzzi!"—Mesers. Prior and Winans and Miss Denvil in leading parts.

Burton's Theatre—In compliance with the request of a large number of his patrons, manager Burton announces that green's great comedy, "A Winter's Tale," for repetition this evening. It will be produced with all the appropriateness of scener's and costume, and literat correctness of the text, that tended to make it so successful on its original presentation at this house a few weeks ago. The comedy will be succeeded by the amusing farce of "That Blessed Bary."

LAGHA KERNE'S VAHIETISS—The new camedy, written by the author of "Macks and Faces.," "Still Waters," &c., and entitled the "The King's Rival," will be played for the fourth time this evening. Miss Keene personates the part of the renowned be I Gw. in Mrs. Leadernier, Queen Catharin; Miss K. Reignolds, Mistress Stuart; Mr. Blechanon, Charles II.; Mr. Jordan, Riehmond, and Mr. "Johnston, Sam Pepps" Novelty" winds up the amusements for the forty-second time.

WALLACK'STREATRE—Owing to the intense sensation created in the early part of the week, by the announcement that Mr. Wallack was to play Dazzle, is Sourcleault's counset of "London Assurance," the popular manager was induced by give notice that the play would be repeated every light tols week. The cast is an unusually fine one throughout, and the house has been crowded every sense. The contention of "Block Kyed Steam," as so shairrably played by the Wood of Lover' is the afterpiece for to night.

Broadway Vanieties —Few can winces the nautical dram of "Black Kyed Steam," as so shairrably played by BROADWAY VARIETIES —Few can witness the nautical deama of "Black Eyed Susan," as so admirably played by the Wood and Marsh juvesiles, without shedding tears. Strong, hardy men, who laugh at the "vite blows and buffets of the world" have been known to weep like chi dren white witnesding this piece. By way of contrast to the drams, it is followed by the "Wandering Minstrel" in which little George, as Jem Baggs, puts everybody in good humor.

Wood's Minstrell.—Good some, well some contrast.

puls everybody in good humor.

Wood's Misstriks.—Good songs well sung, comical and fancy dances, jokes without number, and full houses to appreciate them, are still the order of the night here. The "Happy Man" is the afterpiece for this evening.

BROADWAY ATHENAUN.—Mr. J. P. Nagle, the enterprising proprietor of the beautiful Soriptural and other paintings, takes a benefit this evening. In addition to the exclution of the pictures, Mus Fanny Deane and a number of other distinguabed arisins will give recitations, songs, &c., thus affording a very delightful entertainment.

guashed arises will give recurators, songs, &c., imis shording a very delightful entertainment.

FETTER HALL—If there are any who have not seen the admirable panora-wie l'ilustrations of the Tour of Europe and Siege of Sebestopol, they are advised by all means to visit 8m-ire Hall before the paintings leave the city.

HAWATHA—the public reading of which appears to be creating quites much excidement as did the private perusal ween the poem was first issued—will be repeated by Miss Kimberly, at Hope Chapel, to macrow evening.

BROOKLYN MUSEUM.—A very large and highly respectable audience witnessed the performance of the Theopians of the ended the performance of the Theopians of the course of the parks in remarkship fine style, and Mr. JONEY MC/Woller. The association will perform again in the course of a fortnight.

SACHED CONCERT.—Mr. KAR! Bergmann will give another grand ascrete concert at the City Asserably Rooms nex Sunday. The selections for the occasion are of a very superior order, and as several able artists are to periorm, the house will doubless be well filled.
